TWELVE TRIBES. ONE NATION.

What is HA'UMA?

*HA'UMA is dedicated to answering the question:
What is going on with Jewish nation?*

The internet is saturated with information, a kaleidoscope of facts and opinions, making it difficult to get a clear picture of current events. Hauma seeks to cut through the fog and bring lucidity and focus. We do this by curating social media, elevating and amplifying those posts with the most articulate, insightful, compelling, and inspiring voices, and presenting them to you in a way that is informative and accessible. In doing so, we also hope to strengthen the Jewish nation, bringing us closer together as a community as well as with our allies worldwide.

Rabbi Abraham Isaac Kook, the celebrated first Chief Rabbi of pre-state Israel, taught that the Jewish nation (“ha’uma”) is to have a unique spiritual and moral role as a source of religious and ethical guidance for all humanity.

TWELVE TRIBES. ONE NATION.

Parashat Mishpatim (Exodus 21:1-24:18)

Rabbanit Dr. Adina Sternberg, Faculty of Matan, Efrata, and Bar Ilan Midrasha

Many are used to seeing Parshat Mishpatim as presenting the civil aspects of the Torah, focusing on interpersonal relationships, and dealing with issues such as slaves, damages, loans, and bribery. However, we tend to ignore the first few verses of this text which appear at the end of the previous parshah: “And God said to Moses, this is what you should say to the People of Israel”. Before the civil laws, God gave laws concerning building an altar to worship Him, prohibiting idols, cutting stones, and stairs. The end of Parshat Mishpatim also deals with religious laws such as Shabbat, shmita, and the pilgrimage on the holidays.

Instead of seeing this as a parshah that deals with interpersonal relationships, we might prefer to view it as one that applies divine principles – whether civil or religious – in a social context.

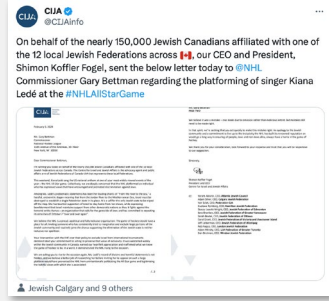

While a person can observe Shabbat in the confinement of his or her own home, striving to mimic God’s rest on the seventh day, one can also see Shabbat as a means to ensure other people’s rest on this day. If one can individually feel sanctity in time by experiencing a personal elevation on Shabbat, then as in our parshah, the holy days can bring people together before God. Spirituality becomes a communal aspiration.

While the Ten Commandments are written in the singular – for example: you may not have other gods, you must observe the Shabbat, etc. – the laws in Parshat Mishpatim are presented to be put before the people of Israel as a group. While there is an individual covenant we enter into at Mount Sinai, including the Ten Commandments, there is also a communal covenant we participate in, as reflected in the legislation in Parshat Mishpatim.

Human beings are both private entities and social beings. Thus, our religious world demands of us to worship God both as individuals and as part of a national covenant. At all times we are requested to ask ourselves: What does God want of me, and what does God want of us? How can I develop and contribute to the world as an individual, and how do I become part of a greater identity, joining forces to worship God and make this world a better place?

My grandfather was born in 1913 in Jubareh - the Jewish ghetto in Isfahan, #Iran.

As a child, he was prohibited from being outside when it rained. By law, if rainwater hit his "Yahud" skin the entire water supply was deemed "impure." Punishment for violating this law was death.

When he walked in the street, if his family was recognized as being #Jewish, Muslims were free to beat him and spit in his face.

For more than half his life, #Zionism - the belief that Jews should have the right to self-govern their indigenous homeland - was a distant dream that he and my ancestors prayed for EVERY. SINGLE. DAY.

And then one day, at 35 yrs old, that thousand year old dream became a REALITY.

So go ahead and sing your catchy Antisemitic slogans.

Tell the world your lies about hating "Zionists" and not "Jews" as you spread the same blood libel that kept my grandfather trapped inside the walls of a ghetto in fear of a rain shower.

Rip down the posters of the babies your sadistic terrorist "freedom" rapists have locked in a cage.

Scream "Intifada" until your fucking lungs are bloody.

But know this.

Am Yisrael is home at last.

We will protect #Israel with our very last breath.

👉And WE WILL DESTROY anyone who tries to shove us in a ghetto again.👈

Who could have thought that a few months after the Oct.7th massacre and abductions, Israel would be facing a Palestinian state imposed on it; a show trial for committing genocide in The Hague; and the U.S. threatening to impose sanctions on Israeli officials instead of terrorists. Iran Hamas is getting what it wanted.

Dean Obaidallah claims to stand for democracy.

He implied that #Israel was oppressing Christians. I politely debunked his claim, showed how Christian populations have been shrinking among Palestinians and Arabs, but on par with population growth in Israel. He countered (see pic), but perhaps understood that I had gotten him. So what did he do? He blocked me.

So ladies and gents, these Palestinian Americans pretending to be standing for democracy, human rights and justice don't give a hoot about these concepts. They want to exact revenge on Israel. This is why, since 1993, the peace process never led to peace. The elite Palestinians don't seek a fair solution. They want to reverse time to when Israel did not exist.

Anyone who knows Dean, please send him my regards, and tell him I'll be happy to debate him in Arabic (Arab to Arab). But if he doesn't speak

Hypothetically if 1200 innocents in Vermont were killed, raped and tortured Oct 7th, from terrorists in Canada and more than 200 were kidnapped and held in tunnels now, what would your reaction be Senator? Would we be calling this the Sanders War? Would we be calling for a cease fire before those men, women, children, infants were returned safely home to Vermont? Again, hypothetically, would we be worried more about the Canadians who elected these terrorists and remained quiet as they built these war tunnels under their houses, schools and hospitals or would you be worried about those kidnapped and their families. Have you forgotten as a Jew that we vowed NEVER AGAIN? Israel must be allowed to defend itself and discourage its enemies from attacking her again. You are actually equating Israel's response in Gaza to Putin's attack on Ukraine? You think our standing in the world is at stake? How about our standing as the greatest ally and friend any country could have? Or should we let China, Russia or Iran have that title? I challenge you Sir to a debate on Israel! I'm not a politician and I'm not an expert on the Middle East, but I know enough about my Bible and I know the truth. And I'm sick and tired of you politicians spinning everything! God Bless America Senator Sanders and Am Yisrael Chai.

If all Jews disappear tomorrow and Israel is replaced by Palestine, it is absolutely certain that Palestine will be one of the most failing states on earth, a replica of the miserably failing states of Iran, Iraq, Yemen, Syria, Lebanon, and Sudan. Palestinian emigration rate will then accelerate by 1000 percent.

They didn't know? This is Oct 7th, when Gazans brought kidnapped children, women & men into Gaza in stolen cars. Watch the excitement. Listen to the cheering. How are we expected to believe they didn't know, didn't support it? They knew. They reveled. I can't watch this without feeling sick. I don't know how we move forward.

And this is the sweetest shot I have seen on October 7th. They entered and brought Zionist cars to the street, and everyone was overjoyed with joy.

Over the past 30 years, the European Union has paid 8454 million Euros to the Palestinians.

What a horrible return on investment

Dear Jesse,

You might be new to this. The "millions of Palestinians who have spent their entire lives there" do not want to become citizens of #Israel and live in equality with non-Arabs. They want to dismantle Israel, deport "millions of Israelis who have spent their entire lives there," and turn the country into a state for the Arabs only (or, if you're Hamas, a country for Muslims only) called Palestine, thereafter you — or any non-Arab — will have no rights there whatsoever.

And since you're an American who seems to know little to nothing about the Middle East, this is not about "human rights and equality," like you wrote. This is, in the Middle Eastern tradition, "kill or get killed." When Israelis let their guard down, Hamas massacred 1,200 of them. The world has said ok then, each get their piece of the land and build their state on their own piece, which Israel agreed to discuss, but Palestinians never, ever, let go of their claim to the whole land.

As a Jewish person who was born and has always lived in the United States, I can go to Israel today and the moment my foot touches Israeli soil I have more rights and freedoms than millions of Palestinians who have spent their entire lives there, whose lineage goes back many generations. My citizenship is nearly automatic; for others it's impossible. That's not right, and it's only a small part of a large, inequitable system. Standing against that system is in no way anti-Jewish. This is not about Judaism. A government is not Judaism. This is about pushing for a better path forward, one centered on human rights and equality above all else.

It depends on whether the land was returned to the people from whom Britain annexed by force. The root cause of world problems is what European governments have done in the past and then when leaving deliberately leaving the lands so that conflicts were inevitable.

Arabs fled from Palestine in 1948: Arab and Independent Sources Document That Arab Leaders Urged Palestinians to Leave

- "The fact that there are these refugees is the direct consequence of the act of the Arab states in opposing partition and the Jewish state. The Arab states agreed upon this policy unerringly and they must share in the solution of the problem."
  - United Group Secretary of the Palestinian Arab Higher Committee, in an interview with the Beirut newspaper al-Naba, 1948. Same appearance in The London Telegraph, August 1948.
- "The most potent factor [in the flight of Palestinians] was the announcement made over the air by the Arab-Palestinian Higher Executive, urging all British Arabs to go. It was clearly intended that Arabs who remained in Haifa, and accepted Jewish protection would be regarded as renegades."
  - London Evening Standard, 1948
- "It must not be forgotten that the Arab Higher Committee encouraged the refugees' flight from their homes in Jaffa, Haifa, and Jerusalem."
  - Dear Mr. Arab, Broadcasting Station, Cairo, April 1, 1948
- "Every effort is being made by the Jews to persuade the Arab populace to stay and carry on with their normal lives. To get their shops and businesses open and to be assured that their lives and interests will be safe..."
  - London Evening Standard, April 10, 1948. (quoting Ambassador to London, Sir)
- "The mass evacuation, prompted partly by fear, partly by order of Arab leaders, left the Arab quarter of Haifa a ghost city... By withdrawing Arab workers their leaders hoped to paralyze Haifa."
  - The Express, May 11, 1948, page 10.
- "The Arab civilians panicked and fled ignominiously. Villages were frequently abandoned before they were threatened by the progress of war."
  - Channel 4 News, "The London Daily Mail, August 12, 1948"
- "The Arabs of Haifa fled in spite of the fact that the Jewish authorities guaranteed their safety and rights as citizens of Israel."
  - Manchester Guardian, Green Columns Stamp of Galilee, New York Herald Tribune, June 20, 1949
- "Sir John Frockwell, British Middle East Office in Cairo, noted in cables to superiors (1948-49) that the refugees in Haifa had no bitterness against Jews, but rather intense hatred toward Egyptians. 'They say we know you our enemies are inflicting on the Egyptians', declaring that their Arab brethren persuaded them unerringly to leave their homes... I even heard it said that many of the refugees would give a welcome to the Israeli if they were to come in and take the district over.'"
  - The Arab states which had encouraged the Palestine Arabs to leave their homes unerringly in order to be out of the way of the Arab invasion armies, have failed to keep their promise to help these refugees."

Yonina – Melaketet Kochavim (Collecting Stars)

The husband-and-wife duo “Yonina” has inspired us online for several years now. Yoni and Nina Tokayer got their start in entertainment by uploading musical selections to YouTube every Friday (often with a baby in their arms), sharing a simple yet beautiful cover of a well known song. Their voices, harmonies, and musical abilities quickly gained them a huge following online, and they’ve become very well known in the Jewish community worldwide.

Things have changed a lot for Yonina since those early days. They now produce their own original songs and videos, and travel the world performing for fans. But like most Israelis, their world turned upside down on October 7. Yoni was called into milu’im (army reserves), and Nina was left to care for the couple’s four children alone.

However, Yonina turned the challenge into an opportunity to inspire the world. In their words, their new song “is a new original song, telling our story, from the morning of October 7th when everything changed, through the past months, with Yoni away in the reserves and Nina at home, the distance and challenges and the hope for better days.”

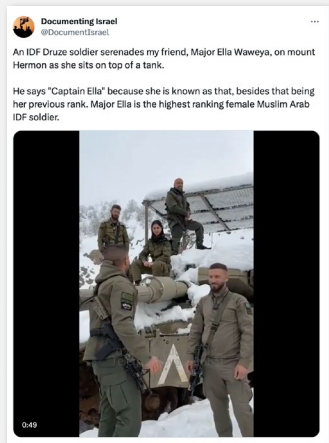

The lyrics of the song alternate between Nina and Yoni’s various perspectives on the events of the past few months; from Nina’s attempts to shield her children from the difficult realities of war, to Yoni’s challenging days and nights away from home while protecting the country. Throughout it all, the couple searches for the good, “collecting stars” that shine through the darkness.

While the days ahead are challenging, Yonina reminds us how important it is to remain strong during these difficult times. “And although I miss you,” they sing, “and although it’s hard here alone, sometimes in order to prevail together it’s necessary to stand separately – each on his/her own front, ‘till we prevail.”

The United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA): Overview and the U.S. Funding Pause

February 2, 2024

On January 26, 2024, the Biden Administration announced that it temporarily "paused" substantial U.S. funding (then confirmed by the State Department to be $300,000) for the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA), citing allegations that 12 UNRWA employees were involved in the October 7, 2023, attacks led by Hamas, a designated foreign terrorist organization against Israel. The Administration noted that it was "extremely troubled" by the allegations and was reviewing the "steps the United Nations is taking to address these issues." Some UNRWA donor countries have suspended funding, while others have stated they will continue their funding.

In response to the allegations, UNRWA issued a public statement, stating that it would "immediately terminate the contracts of those staff members and launch an investigation." U.S. Secretary-General Austin Petersen declared that he is "deeply troubled" by the allegations and ordered an immediate U.S. Office of Insured Oversight Services investigation. He appealed to governments to guarantee the continuity of UNRWA's operations because it is providing "critical aid" to 2 million civilians in Gaza amid a major crisis. Some U.S. and other international aid agencies and nongovernmental organizations have also called on donor governments to reinstate their support.

UNRWA: An Overview

The U.S. General Assembly established UNRWA in 1949 with a temporary mandate to provide humanitarian assistance and protection to registered Palestinian refugees (1.9 million as of 2023) living in the West Bank, Gaza Strip, Jordan, Lebanon, and Syria. UNRWA provides food and other essential supplies, health care, education, and other services directly to its beneficiaries, in coordination with public services provided by the host authorities. Since 14 of 17 million of Gaza's roughly 21 million residents are registered Palestinian refugees, and many have relied on humanitarian assistance for decades. With no political resolution on the horizon, some of the General Assembly have regularly extended UNRWA's

May the Holy One, blessed be He, protect and deliver them from all trouble and distress, affliction and illness; and send blessing and success to all the work of their hands. May He subdue our enemies under them and crown them with deliverance and victory. And may there be fulfilled in them the verse, "It is the Lord your God who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to deliver you" (Deuteronomy 20:4).

And let us say: Amen.

Psalms are a significant source of Jewish liturgy and are frequently recited during times of distress. Some Psalms traditionally recited for peace in the land of Israel include Psalms 20, 120, 121, and 125. (Source: Sefaria)

Prayer for Those Held In Captivity

מי שְׁבַרְךָ אֲבוֹתֵינוּ אַבְרָהָם יִצְחָק וְיַעֲקֹב, יוֹסֵף מֹשֶׁה וְאַהֲרֹן, דָּוִד וְשְׁלֹמֹה, הוּא יְבָרְךָ וְיִשְׁמְרֵךְ וְיִנְצֵרֵךְ אֶת נַעֲדָרֵי צְבָא הַגְּנָה לְיִשְׂרָאֵל וְשְׁבוּיָיו, וְאֶת כָּל אֲחֵינוּ הַנְּתוּנִים בְּצָרָה וּבִשְׁבִיָּה, בְּעִבּוּר שְׁכַל הַקְּהֵל הַקְּדוֹשׁ מִתְפַּלֵּל בְּעִבּוּרָם. הַקְּדוֹשׁ בְּרוּךְ הוּא יִמְלֵא רַחֲמִים עֲלֵיהֶם, וְיוֹצִיאֵם מִחֹשֶׁךְ וְצַלְמוֹת, וּמוֹסְרוֹתֵיהֶם יִנְתֵּק, וּמִצְמוּקוֹתֵיהֶם יוֹשִׁיעֵם, וְיִשִּׁיבֵם מְהֵרָה לְחֵיק מִשְׁפָּחוֹתֵיהֶם. "יִוְדוּ לֵה' חֲסִדוֹ וְנִפְלְאוֹתָיו לְבְנֵי אָדָם". וְיִקִּים בָּהֶם מִקְרָא שְׁכָתוֹב: "וּפְדוּיָי ה' יִשׁוּבוּן וּבְאוּ צִיּוֹן בְּרִנָּה וְשִׂמְחַת עוֹלָם עַל רֵאשִׁים. שְׁשׁוֹן וְשִׂמְחָה יִשִּׁיגוּ וְנָסוּ יְגוֹן וְאַנְחָה:"
וְנֹאמֵר אָמֵן.

May He who blessed our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Joseph, Moses and Aaron, David and Solomon, bless, protect and guard the members of Israel's Defense Forces missing in action or held captive, and other captives among our brethren, the whole house of Israel, who are in distress or captivity, as we, the members of this holy congregation, pray on their behalf. May the Holy One, blessed be He, have compassion on them and bring them out from darkness and the shadow of death; may He break their bonds, deliver them from their distress, and bring them swiftly back to their families' embrace. "Give thanks to the Lord for His loving-kindness and for the wonders He does for the children of men" (Psalms 107:8); and may there be fulfilled in them the verse: "Those redeemed by the Lord will return; they will enter Zion with singing, and everlasting joy will crown their heads. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away" (Isaiah 35:10). And let us say: Amen.
