What is HA'UMA?

*HA'UMA is dedicated to answering the question:
What is going on with Jewish nation?*

The internet is saturated with information, a kaleidoscope of facts and opinions, making it difficult to get a clear picture of current events. Hauma seeks to cut through the fog and bring lucidity and focus. We do this by curating social media, elevating and amplifying those posts with the most articulate, insightful, compelling, and inspiring voices, and presenting them to you in a way that is informative and accessible. In doing so, we also hope to strengthen the Jewish nation, bringing us closer together as a community as well as with our allies worldwide.

Rabbi Abraham Isaac Kook, the celebrated first Chief Rabbi of pre-state Israel, taught that the Jewish nation (“ha’uma”) is to have a unique spiritual and moral role as a source of religious and ethical guidance for all humanity.

Glossary of HA'UMA Categories

- Featured Articles and Posts – Editors' Picks of the most compelling articles and posts of the week.
- Advocacy – Calls for action.
- Antisemitism/Antizionism – Instances of antisemitism and antizionism, separate or combined.
- Bring Them Home – Posts about the plight of Israel's hostages held by Hamas terrorists.
- Double Standards – Instances when Israel and Jews are subject to a double standard. So prevalent it deserves its own category.
- Hall of Champions – Famous and not famous, Jewish and non-Jewish, supporters of Israel and Jews from around the world.
- Hamas Lies – Exposés of the many instances of Hamas's cruelty and war crimes.
- Israel Truths – Posts that express a positive truth about Israel and Israel's actions in the war.
- L'Chaim – Moments in daily life that are enriched by and celebrate Israel and Jewish values and traditions.
- Life at War – Vignettes from life in Israel during the current war.
- Lunatic Fringe – Inspired by the story behind Canadian rocker Tom Cochrane's eponymous hit, these posts primarily concern international organizations with a mandate to improve some aspect the world but in practice discriminate against Israel and Jews.
- Orwell's Intellectuals – For posts about academia that reflect George Orwell's famous observation: "Some ideas are so stupid that only intellectuals believe them."
- Palestinian Affairs – Myriad issues connected to the Palestinians and Palestinian society.
- Portions of Light – Commentary on the weekly Torah portion, following the Israeli schedule.
- Poison Ivies @ Congress - Posts connected to the appalling Congressional testimony of the three Ivy League presidents. Could have fit under "Orwell's Intellectuals" but the testimony was so shocking it deserves its own category.
- Sounds of Music – Music videos that capture the spirit of the times and from Israel.
- The Situation – A catch-all category for posts that don't fit into the other categories.
- Thousands of Words – These are evocative graphics and memes, pictures that speak "a thousand words."
- UNhinged – Though the UN was established with the noblest of intentions, it has since become an inveterately antisemitic organization that often actively supports the enemies of Israel, Jews, and the civilized world.

Interactive Table of Contents

Though HA'UMA may be read cover-to-cover, it is also designed to be browsed. HA'UMA's entries are organized by category, and each entry is listed and linked to the Table of Contents. Clicking on the entry's title then brings you directly to it. At each entry, clicking on its graphic or author will bring you to those sources. ## Alireza Nader: Antisemitism I Experienced as Jewish Child in Iran

Alireza Nader | X | March 03, 2024

Link to original article here

Israel Truths

I don't like to get personal on this platform, but I would like to share my personal experience regarding antisemitism.

I lived in Iran until the age of ten. I have very dark memories of that time, and one of those memories is being indoctrinated by the Islamic Republic to hate Jews and Israel.

Every morning, we were made to line up before class in the schoolyard and shout slogans against America and Israel. The regime's portrayal of Israel was particularly nasty. I already knew about America since we had family there, so I was skeptical about the regime's lies. But I didn't know anything about Israel. And there was no source of information to explore. So I would think to myself: what is this place Israel?

Only when my family moved to the US was I able to learn about Israel. And I read everything I could about Judaism, Israeli history, the Holocaust, you name it. It was immensely eye opening for me. But I didn't have the opportunity to go to Israel until a few years ago for a conference.

And you know what? I was nervous. I knew how much damage the regime had done to Israel and felt that Israelis may resent Iranians. And there it was on my American passport: Born in Iran. I'd heard that Iranian-born people got a lot of extra attention by Israeli security upon arriving at Tel Aviv airport.

But the conference organizer had issued me a special invite and I sailed through the airport's security check. I was treated like royalty LOL. It was perhaps my best airport experience ever.

And I found Israel to be an immensely fascinating country full of culture, history, and welcoming people (and great food). Israelis were sooooo curious about Iran. And so thoughtful. It was such a great experience for me.

And I thought that my trip was a small personal blow against the evil regime ruling Iran. I'd defeated the regime's indoctrination of me.

It's been very hard to process October 7. I'm still in shock and full of grief. I hate seeing my Jewish friends being targeted in America and Europe. I hate seeing synagogues with armed guards everywhere I go.

But my own personal experience gives me some hope in these terrible times. The key is to read and learn and think and know everything to know possible about Israel and Judaism.

If a little lost kid in Tehran could withstand the brainwashing and hate of the evil regime, then there is hope for everyone.

The Situation

I watched the aerial footage of the disaster surrounding the Israeli Defense Forces (IDF) attempt to deliver aid to Northern Gaza last Thursday in horror. While the complete details are unknown and awaiting further IDF investigation, what I did see brought back memories of my own experiences, ones I wish to forget, trying to deliver humanitarian aid during combat in war-torn cities. These missions were the ones I feared most.

War is chaos and so much of being a soldier is about maintaining a sense of control in utter chaos. Training for war is about preparing for foreseeable scenarios, like attacking an enemy held city, walking down an enemy street, or dodging roadside bombs, and then responding to those threats—often even without a deliberate thought process.

I was a platoon leader in Northern Iraq in 2003. It was a month after the invasion and I was tasked to use my infantry platoon to distribute water with a giant water truck containing over 4,000 gallons of water to a crowded slum in Kirkuk, Iraq, where the bombs to take the city had cut the power and damaged water lines. It was a mission my soldiers and I had never trained for.

But that is war—especially modern wars that center on densely populated urban areas, where soldiers have and will continue to be required to fight what U.S. General Charles Krulak called the “three block war” in which soldiers must simultaneously fight a vicious embedded enemy on one block, conduct peacekeeping operations on the next block, and deliver humanitarian aid on a third block.

Despite the complete lack of training for our mission to deliver water, we made a plan scribbled out in our pocket notebooks, which centered on the basics of security: We planned to secure the water truck inside our convoy and then at a distribution site in the city. We created an outer perimeter of vehicles and soldiers and an inner perimeter around the truck with a circle of razor wire to give standoff and create entry and exit points. Each soldier on the ground and gunners on the vehicles were assigned their areas to watch for threats.

The soldiers did their job. They scanned the hands of the crowd for weapons, scanned the windows for shooters. They pointed, yelled, even shoved to get people to the right places or away from the wrong place.

A crowd of men of all ages and mostly elderly women began to surround us, and it didn't take long for the crowd to turn into a mob. Thoughts ran through my mind of a suicide bomber or a weapon firing from the crowd. No matter the commands to form a line or back up, nobody would listen. They crowded the security trucks screaming in Arabic, making the soldiers extremely nervous. The crowd began throwing women into the razor wire as they shoved each other for a better position. This caused injuries we then had to help care for. It rapidly became uncontrollable, and I had to give the order to pack up and withdraw.

A few weeks later, we were tasked to deliver trucks of cooking gas into another area of Kirkuk. We had learned from our last experience trying to deliver water and found a small compound in the city we could use to get the trucks into. The walls of the compound would be our security bubble. We planned to place soldiers to pull security on the roof, entry and exit points, and four corners of the building.

This time it was not the distribution site that turned chaos but the drive in. We put the two gated flatbed trucks carrying the gas tanks in the middle of our formation. As we drove, civilian cars of mostly beat up Nissan pickup trucks packed with men started to drive next to and even into the gas truck. Men from the pickups tried to jump onto the gas trucks.

Once again we had to abort the operation, and I told my convoy to return to base.

The worst experience I had was in 2009 as a company commander in Baghdad tasked to deliver water and MREs (meals-ready-to eat), the same ones that were air-dropped by U.S. this week in Gaza. We were delivering the aid to an impoverished and overcrowded neighborhood consisting of rundown eight-story apartment complexes that had experienced a water and power outage the day before.

Distribution started orderly, but within minutes, a crowd formed and refused to stay in lines or in a single area. They refused to give even a foot of space to my soldiers or the truck, and started grabbing at both. In a matter of minutes, the crowd turned to a mob. My soldiers were being engulfed. I immediately ordered a withdrawal.

Soldiers always have the right of self-defense. That must never be taken from them. In urban areas, especially those still active war zones, the threats are everywhere. In the case of Gaza where heavy fighting continues, threats can be snipers, rocket propelled grenades. We know Hamas dressed in civilian clothes have been walking up to armored vehicles to place magnet bombs and fire into the crowd during aid distribution.

Much of combat is about seeking control, and one of the reasons delivering aid in a combat zone is so hectic is because of how control can be lost in a millisecond.

Writing in the late 1990s after the U.S. military tried to assist in aid delivery operations in Mogadishu, General Kurlak, did not foresee the age of fighting a war in a global fishbowl where the cell phone footage of every civilian in the area is recording your every cuss word. A war where a single photo or video clip can spread to millions if not billions of people in seconds with no context.

I cannot imagine the added feeling of helplessness not only in the moment when all control is lost in a humanitarian aid delivery operation but knowing that your worst moment is being recorded. I do not wish it on any soldier.

UNhinged

Testimony by UN Watch Executive Director Hillel Neuer before the United States Congress, House Committee on Foreign Affairs, Joint Hearing of the Subcommittee on Oversight and Accountability and the Subcommittee on Global Health, Global Human Rights, and International Organizations

Chairmen, Ranking Members, and Members of the Committee: Thank you for inviting me to testify today. For years, we have been told by UNRWA and its supporters that the agency performs “lifesaving work” and that its teachers offer Palestinian students an education that “promotes human rights, tolerance, equality, and non-discrimination.”

Today, more than ever before – and I mean literally today, in light of the bombshell news reports in yesterday’s Wall Street Journal, Reuters, and elsewhere – we now know this has been a lie.

From these and other revelations of the past few days, we know that in Gaza, at least 12 UNRWA employees personally participated in the massacre of October 7th, which involved the murder of 1,200 Israelis along with mass rape, torture, and mutilation. Secretary of State Blinken said yesterday, “These intelligence reports are highly, highly credible.”

The world also learned yesterday that 1,200 UNRWA employees in Gaza are part of Hamas or Islamic Jihad, meaning actual operatives within the political and military organizations.

Finally, an estimated 6,000 UNRWA employees, being half of the UNRWA workforce in Gaza, have close family members in these terrorist organizations.

Now, UNRWA’s top donors, the United States, Germany, Britain, Canada, and many others have just announced they’re freezing funds.

Accordingly, I have come here from Geneva today to bring before the Congress our case against UNRWA.

I have come here to ask the Congress of the United States, which is the largest donor to UNRWA at over $300 million a year, to not just suspend, but to end the funding for good – and to take the lead in dissolving an organization that is riddled with incitement to hate, involvement in terrorism, and the perpetuation of war.

Members of the committee will find all of the evidence that I present here on our website under “The Case Against UNRWA”: <http://unwatch.org/unrwa-obstacle-to-peace>

Now, on Friday, Secretary-General Guterres announced that he was “horrified” to learn that members of his UNRWA staff were implicated in terrorism.

Members of the Committee: I am here to bear witness and testify that Secretary-General Guterres, the head of UNRWA Philippe Lazzarini, their predecessors, and their senior colleagues, could not possibly have been shocked that UNRWA employees are implicated in terrorism.

Because for the past nine years, and Chairman Smith knows this very well, we’ve been uncovering, publishing, and submitting to the UN, to UNRWA, evidence of widespread and systematic incitement to jihadi terrorism, the praise of Nazi leader Adolf Hitler, calls to slaughter Jews on the part of UNRWA teachers, school principals, and other employees.

These reports range from 10 to 200 pages. For example, just in November, we sent a report on 20 teachers who celebrated the October 7th massacre. <https://unwatch.org/report-u-n-teachers-celebrated-hamas-massacre/>

In March, together with IMPACT-se, we identified 133 UNRWA teachers and staff who promoted hate and violence in social media. <https://unwatch.org/un-teachers-call-to-murder-jews-reveals-new-report/>

In June 2022, we released a report called “UNRWA’s Teachers of Hate.” <https://unwatch.org/exposed-un-teachers-call-to-murder-jews/>

It included the following Facebook post by Elham Mansour, an UNRWA teacher: “By Allah, anyone who can kill and slaughter any Zionist and Israeli criminal and doesn’t do so, doesn’t deserve to live. Kill them and pursue them everywhere. They are the greatest enemy. All Israel deserves is death.” <https://unwatch.org/elham-mansour-unrwa-teacher-in-lebanon-icites-killing-israelis-and-jews/>

This is an UNRWA teacher’s statement on Facebook. We sent it to the UN. They did nothing.

We sent them reports in 2021: <https://unwatch.org/report-un-teachers-celebrate-deaths-of-israelis/>

In 2019: <https://unwatch.org/exposed-unrwa-staff-still-posting-jihadi-terrorism-and-antisemitism-on-facebook/>

In 2017: <https://unwatch.org/130-page-report-unrwa-teachers-icite-terrorism-antisemitism/>

And in 2015, numerous reports:

- Nov. 30, 2015: <https://unwatch.org/report-despite-unrwa-promises-teachers-again-inciting-to-violence-against-jewish-apes-and-pigs/>
- Oct. 19, 2015: <https://unwatch.org/issue-551-unrwa-employees-icite-murder-facebook/>
- Sept. 1, 2015: <https://unwatch.org/images-of-unrwa-incident-to-antisemitism-violence/>
- Aug. 23, 2015: <https://unwatch.org/unrwa-posts-anti-semitic-cartoons-iciting-murder-of-jews/>

They never contacted us for information. They refused our repeated written requests to meet to discuss the problem.

They cannot say they didn’t know. Mr. Guterres knew. The head of UNRWA knew. The United Nations knew. They simply chose not to act.

But it’s much worse than that. From the beginning, their response to our reports was to attack us for doing the work they failed to do.

If we look at Chris Gunness, the longtime UNRWA spokesman – he’s now come back as a surrogate, giving interviews on Al Jazeera – he said on Twitter the following, in response to our reports:

- “Appeal to journalists: please don’t turn UN Watch’s baseless allegations about antisemitism into a he-said-she-said story. It’s a non-story.”
- “UN Watch makes a fool of itself again. Credibility dead in the water. Will anyone believe them again?”
- “Interested to find out more about UN Watch’s political and financial affiliations since its establishment. Can anyone advise?” <https://unwatch.org/unrwas-chris-gunness-launches-mccarthyite-attacks-on-un-watch/>

This was their response – to smear the messenger. They are not interested in finding out the root problem of incitement to terrorism.

In June 2022, when under pressure from the U.S. they had to suspend six out of 10 of their employees whom we had exposed, UNRWA Deputy Commissioner-General Leni Stenseth – who’s now the Director General of the Norwegian Foreign Ministry – informed donor states, and put it on her website, that “the real intent of UN Watch, is to destroy and not build and to invite conflict, not build a lasting peace.” <https://unrwa.org/newsroom/press-releases/unrwa-briefs-partners-allegations-staff-misconduct-over-humanitarian>

Now, the U.S. and other donors have asked UNRWA to investigate and to ensure accountability. I can tell you, for a decade, UNRWA has shown itself to be unwilling, unable, and unfit.

Today I wish to present our new report, called “UNRWA’s Terrorgram” which I’ve handed to each of the members and it’s on our website: <https://unwatch.org/unrwa-terrorgram/>

In this report, we document a telegram chat group of over 3,000 UNRWA teachers in Gaza that is replete with messages, photos, and videos cheering and celebrating the massacre of October 7th.

It includes, for example, Safaa Mohammed Al-Najjar, on the morning of October 7th – she’s an UNRWA teacher of computers in Gaza, an administrator of this Telegram group – she celebrated the massacre, posting videos. She praised the Hamas “mujahideen,” the holy warriors, as they massacred, mutilated, and raped Israelis. <https://unwatch.org/safaa-mohammad-al-najjar-aka-safa-al-najjar-celebrates-october-7th-attack/>

UNRWA English teacher Abdallah Mehjaz shared a message from Hamas urging Gazans to stay put, to ignore Israeli messages asking them to evacuate for their safety, effectively doing the work of Hamas, to ask Gazans to be human shields. This is an UNRWA teacher. <https://unwatch.org/abdallah-mehjaz-amplifies-hamas-call-to-gazans-to-remain-as-human-shields/>

Israa Abdul Kareem Mezher, an elementary school teacher, celebrated the Hamas terrorists saying: “May Allah keep their feet steady and guide their aim.” When a group member wondered what these “heroes,” the terrorists, as they were perpetrating the massacre, were brought up on, Mezher replied, “They imbibed jihad and resistance with their mother’s milk.” And a few days later, this UNRWA teacher asked Hamas to execute their Israeli hostages. <https://unwatch.org/israa-abdul-kareem-mezher-aka-sun-of-sunshine-praises-october-7th-terrorists-endorses-hostage-killing/>

When Stéphane Dujarric, the UN spokesman, was asked about our information, he replied on January 11th: "I mean, UN Watch, they have a track record. And I think from our end it speaks for itself." He tried to disparage us. <https://twitter.com/HillelNeuer/status/1746962851955191937>

Just to conclude: We have massive incitement to terrorism.

Prominent people have said, "Well, bad apples... It's just a few bad apples." No. We're talking about 1,200 UNRWA staff who actually belong to the terrorist organizations; 3,000 UNRWA teachers in this Telegram group; 6,000 UNRWA employees whose family members belong to Hamas or Islamic Jihad. This is not a problem of "bad apples"; UNRWA is rotten to the core.

So we've talked about incitement; we've talked about acts of actual violence; finally, let's get to the core problem, and with that I conclude.

The core problem of UNRWA, the very purpose of the agency, is to perpetuate the war of 1948, to send the message to Palestinians that the war of 1948 is not over. Don't use cement to build homes, hospitals, and schools here in Gaza. Use it to build hundreds of miles of terror tunnels, to tunnel into Israel, to invade Israel, to go back to where your true homes are. That is the message of UNRWA.

So we should not be surprised by what happened on October 7th because that is the message that these Palestinians got for more than 70 years in UNRWA schools.

UNRWA is a failure. We have to recognize what the Swiss Foreign Minister Ignacio Cassis said. And Switzerland is a country that historically supports the UN. He said the following: "UNRWA has become part of the problem. It supplies the ammunition to continue the conflict. By supporting UNRWA, we keep the conflict alive. It's a perverse logic." <https://twitter.com/HillelNeuer/status/1751366062807945622>

And I'm here to say: If the United States and other governments that fund UNRWA truly care about helping Palestinians and Israelis, it's time to put an end to this perverse logic.

We are asking Congress to take the lead in dissolving this agency.

Thank you very much.

Pick of the Week
Israel Hour Radio

Shula Chen - Bo HaBayta (Come Home)

English Translation here.

It's been more than 150 days.

150+ days of fear. Of pain. Of suffering. Of darkness. Of torture.

As our entire nation endures every agonizing moment of our hostage crisis, we wait with pain and frustration as the days continue to tick by with no signs of resolution. At the same time, we're human - and it can be easy for some of us to forget from time to time. We continue on with our daily lives as normal, until a billboard, a conversation, or even a song on the radio jars us back into the sad reality we face as a nation.

Israeli radio has done a great job ensuring we don't forget. Galgalatz radio, for example, devotes the second song of each hour to one particular hostage. They play one of his or her favorite songs, with hope that perhaps they will hear it and be strengthened by the fact that we have not forgotten them at home.

In another initiative, most of Israel's major music radio stations have agreed to play "Bo HaBayta" every day at 5 pm, until all of Israel's hostages come home. This 1969 song by Shula Chen was likely intended as a song of reconciliation among lovers who have separated, but in today's dark reality, the song takes on an entirely new significance.

"Come home," Shula Chen croons. "Come, see that everything is ready / And I cry a bit more and wait / And I will be sad here if you don't return." It's a daily and important reminder that as we go on with our lives, so many of our brothers and sisters are still living in hell, deep beneath Gaza.

May all of the 134 men, women, and children held captive by Hamas "come home" immediately. Bring Them Home Now!

Parashat Vayakhel (Exodus 35:1-38:20)

Rabbanit Dr. Adina Sternberg, Faculty of Matan, Efrata, and Bar Ilan Midrasha

In the beginning of our parsha, the command regarding Shabbat is repeated. Just as when Moses was instructed to build the Mishkan he received a restriction regarding the Shabbat, so it is repeated when this instruction is replayed for the people. Due to the proximity of the commands, the Sages understood that the crafts or “melachot” prohibited on Shabbat are those necessary for building the Mishkan.

The list of “melachot” that the Sages spell out in the Mishnah in Shabbat, are mentioned in the midrash in a different context (Brachot 58a): “Ben Zoma once saw a multitude of Israel while standing on a stair on the Temple Mount. He recited: ‘Blessed...Who knows all secrets and Blessed...Who created all these to serve me’. He would say: How much effort did Adam the first man exert before he found bread to eat: He plowed, sowed, reaped, sheaved, threshed, winnowed in the wind, separated the grain from the chaff, ground the grain into flour, sifted, kneaded, and baked and only thereafter he ate. And I, wake up and find all of these prepared for me. How much effort did Adam the first man exert before he found a garment to wear? He sheared, laundered, combed, spun and wove, and only thereafter he found a garment to wear. And I wake up and find all of these prepared for me”.

Ben Zoma describes the different crafts needed to fulfill his personal needs, while emphasizing the advantages of out-sourcing, whereby many people can come together to source more efficiently the needs of many. This collectivity, which is a wonder in our day-to-day lives, is also part of the wonder of the Mishkan, created via joint effort, where each and every one contributes their part toward a shared spiritual goal. Just as society has progressed since the time each person saw to his own needs, so the Mishkan is an expression of a society working together, combining individuals’ abilities and contributions.

This can explain why our parsha, which describes the command to the nation, begins with the verb “vayakhel”, he convened the people. Moshe as an individual could enjoy the vision of the Mishkan exhibited before him by God at Sinai, yet for the vision to become reality, it required a community and a partnership.

In the Torah reading of “Shekalim”, the people contribute equally to the needs of the Mishkan, but that is not enough. For the enterprise of making a place of meeting with God in this world, each and every one in the community needs to contribute from their own belongings and bring forth their unique abilities. Together with this, for God to bless this enterprise the people also need to hold back their unique donation for one day a week and make room for His Divine presence. The realization of each person’s uniqueness together with the understanding of one’s limitations, makes room for a people to unite and for God to dwell among us.

The report issued by UN Special Representative on Sexual Violence in Conflict, Pramila Patten, and her team is of immense importance. It substantiates with moral clarity and integrity the systematic, premeditated, and ongoing sexual crimes committed by Hamas terrorists against Israeli women. Hamas and its allies are trying to discredit the report, to escape from this horrific shame. They will not succeed as the testimonies are shocking indeed. Therefore, now the world must react strongly by condemning and punishing Hamas.

We must all continue our relentless efforts to bring all the hostages home to their families. As we can learn from the report they are constantly under clear and present danger.

Israel said that they would halt any further hostage negotiations until Hamas provides information on the remaining hostages' well-being.

In response, Hamas stated that they would not disclose any information until a comprehensive ceasefire is achieved.

It's time for Israel to proceed with Rafah, they gave them enough time.

Thank you @evildemon119.

Hi @James_J_Marlow

This one is actually pretty easy.

If you watch the video carefully, fast forward to 0:10. You will actually see one of the Hamas gunmen running out of the crowd. At 0:12 through 0:14 you can see the gunman turn to his left (our right) holding an AK47 (which is the rifle sound you're hearing mixed with a few 9mm semiautomatic handguns) and firing at the civilians running into the trees. And at 0:15, you can see the puff of dust from the gunfire in the trees. I've taken screenshots of the above and circled each frame for ease of reference.

Hope that helps 🙏

I'll certainly never forget these scenes of people celebrating Hamas on Oct 8th, outside the Israeli Embassy, before Israel even retaliated.

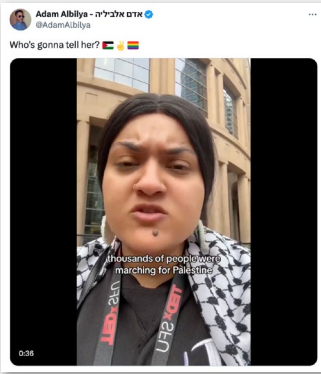

Remember, many of the people currently shouting "Islamophobia" were very silent when we highlighted this elephant in the room back then.

The Situation

Shoshana @shoshana1726

I can do this for every Arab/Muslim country...

Qatar:
The constitution declares Islam to be the state religion and states sharia shall be "a main source" of legislation. According to the constitution, the Emir must be Muslim.

To obtain an official presence in the country, expatriate non-Muslim religious groups must register with the MFA. The only registered religious groups are Sunni and Shia Muslims and eight Christian denominations: the Roman Catholic, Anglican, Greek Orthodox, Syrian Orthodox, Coptic Orthodox, Maronite, evangelical Protestant, and the Interdenominational Christian Churches.

According to the law, unregistered religious groups (i.e., those not registered or under the patronage of one of the registered groups) that engage in worship activities are illegal, and members of those groups are subject to deportation.

Kuwait:
The constitution declares Islam to be the state religion. It provides for freedom of thought and expression "within the limits of the law" but does not mention freedom of religion, belief, or conscience. The constitution states sharia is the source of all legislation. Sharia serves as the basis of the legal system.

KSA:
The Basic Law of Governance establishes the country as a sovereign Arab Islamic state, the religion of which is Islam. The Basic Law defines the country's constitution as the Quran and the Sunna and states the "decisions of judges shall not be subject to any authority other than the authority of the Islamic sharia." The Basic Law contains no legal recognition or protection of freedom of religion. Conversion from Islam to another religion is grounds for the charge of apostasy, which is legally punishable by death.

Jordan is asking for more water after trashing the Israelis for nearly 5 months, and downplaying 10/7.

This comes after years of vitriol to placate the majority Palestinian population.

Israel needs to help. Jordan's stability is crucial.

But a different contract is needed.

Prayer for Israel's Defence Forces

מי שברך אבותינו אברהם יצחק ויעקב הוא יברך את חילי צבא הגנה לישראל ואנשי כחות הבטחון, העומדים על משמר ארצנו וערי אלהינו מגבול הלבנון ועד מדבר מצרים ומן הים הגדול עד לבוא הערבה ובכל מקום שהם, ביבשה באויר ובים. יתן ה' את אויבינו הקמים עלינו נגפים לפניהם. הקדוש ברוך הוא ישמר ויציל את חילינו מכל צרה וצוקה ומכל נגע ומחלה, וישלח ברכה והצלחה בכל מעשה ידיהם. ידבר שונאינו תחתיהם ויעטרם בכתר ישועה ובעטרת נצחון ויקים בהם הכתוב: "כי ה' אלהיכם ההלך עמכם להלחם לכם עם איביכם להושיע אתכם".
ונאמר אמן.

May He who blessed our ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, bless the members of Israel's Defense Forces and its security services, who stand guard over our land and the cities of our God from the Lebanese border to the Egyptian desert, and from the Mediterranean Sea to the approach of the Arava, and wherever else they are, on land, in air, and at sea. May the Lord make the enemies who rise against us be struck down before them. May the Holy One, blessed be He, protect and deliver them from all trouble and distress, affliction and illness; and send blessing and success to all the work of their hands. May He subdue our enemies under them and crown them with deliverance and victory. And may there be fulfilled in them the verse, "It is the Lord your God who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to deliver you" (Deuteronomy 20:4).

And let us say: Amen.

Psalms are a significant source of Jewish liturgy and are frequently recited during times of distress. Some Psalms traditionally recited for peace in the land of Israel include Psalms 20, 120, 121, and 125. (Source: Sefaria)

Prayer for Those Held In Captivity

מי שברך אבותינו אברהם יצחק ויעקב, יוסף משה ואהרן, דוד ושלמה, הוא יברך וישמר וינצר את נעדרי צבא הגנה לישראל ושבייו, ואת כל אחינו הנתונים בצרה וב־שביה, בעבור שכל הקהל הקדוש מתפלל בעבורם. הקדוש ברוך הוא ימלא רחמים עליהם, ויוציאם מחשך וצלמות, ומסרותיהם ינתק, ומצוקותיהם יושיעם, וישיבם מהרה לחיק משפחותיהם. "יודו לה' חסדו ונפלאותיו לבני אדם". ויקים בהם מקרא שכתוב: "ופדויה' ישובו ובאו ציון ברנה ושמחת עולם על ראשם. ששון ושמחה ישיגו ונסו יגון ואנחה":
ונאמר אמן.

May He who blessed our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Joseph, Moses and Aaron, David and Solomon, bless, protect and guard the members of Israel's Defense Forces missing in action or held captive, and other captives among our brethren, the whole house of Israel, who are in distress or captivity, as we, the members of this holy congregation, pray on their behalf. May the Holy One, blessed be He, have compassion on them and bring them out from darkness and the shadow of death; may He break their bonds, deliver them from their distress, and bring them swiftly back to their families' embrace. "Give thanks to the Lord for His loving-kindness and for the wonders He does for the children of men" (Psalms 107:8); and may there be fulfilled in them the verse: "Those redeemed by the Lord will return; they will enter Zion with singing, and everlasting joy will crown their heads. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away" (Isaiah 35:10). And let us say: Amen.
